FEBRUARY LEADERSHIP REPORT:

◆ YOUR PRESIDENT: LIZ COVIELLO

For more than 50 years, the Redlands Art Association has funded school art programs, taught art classes and supported the regional arts community. But we need your financial help to keep going.

We recently launched a Show Your Heart for Art campaign via direct mail and facebook to raise funds for our art programs. If you believe in art programs that allow kids to experience the joy of creation—just like we used to do when we were children — please donate today. Your support makes our community a better and more vital place in which to creatively thrive.

We also need volunteers to serve on our fundraising and sponsorship committee.

Monthly Programs

Did you miss the January program?

David Alter of theIMAGEis gave an interesting talk and demonstration on the plus side of creative product image editing for e-commerce web sites. Using genuine photos from the internet as examples David explained about the positive psychological responses a viewer has when presented with stimulating images. He selected lackluster photographs (some by request) of items for sale on the internet and demonstrated how by using Photoshop you could improve the image, within a few minutes, by tweaking the colors, correcting the horizon where necessary, considering the placement of an object (center or side) and cropping the picture. Thus giving a cropped vivid, sharp image with an advantageous placement and placed within a border for “specific visual impact and effect”.

David stated that on the web site www.theIMAGEis.com you can find a complete and easy to follow script on how to achieve the end results you need to increase sales and profits.

Many thanks to David for an interesting evening and to those who set up the chairs and food.

The topic for the February 28th program is “Art Therapy” with Karen Waddel and David Farrington. The program starts at 7pm and is free to all.

48th Annual MULTI MEDIA MINI SHOW

Variety in Mini Art!

The 48th Annual Multi-Media Mini Show, sponsored by the Redlands Art Association, will open on March 10 at their Gallery & Art Center, downtown Redlands. Artists will bring in art of all kinds as long as it fits within a 14.5" cube. The variety (Multi-Media) and the size (Mini) is what makes this show interesting. Jurist, Penny McElroy, will choose the best 150 pieces from those entered; pieces that make you say, "hmmm" and pieces that make you say, "WOW!." The public is invited to the Grand Opening on March 10, 4-7pm. The exhibit runs through March 30.

The Jurist – Penny McElroy is an artist and teacher. After earning a Bachelor's degree in Social Work, and working as a counselor for 5 years, Penny entered the graduate graphics program at the University of Wisconsin / Madison. Since earning her MFA, Penny has taught graphic design, printmaking and book arts at Bethany College in Kansas and at the University of Redlands in California. Penny's artwork incorporates a broad range of media, from drawing and painting to 3-D ceramic pieces. Recently she has been experimenting with layered mixed media works on paper that incorporate light. Penny's work has been exhibited throughout the United States and abroad, including recently at the Cal Poly Pomona exhibit Ink & Clay, where her work, el matrimonio de Archimedes, won the University President's Purchase award. Other recent exhibition venues also include ARC gallery in San Francisco, Skylight Gallery in New York, Gallery 825 in Los Angeles, Lalit Kala Akademi in New Delhi, India, Cali, Medellin, and Manizales, Columbia, as well as Quilmes, Argentina. For more information: www.maggiessye.com.

Winners of the competition will participate in over $2,000 in cash and product awards. Purchase Award Patrons will select their art pieces at a private showing before the exhibit opens for the public. Grand Opening Gala will be Friday, March 10 from 4pm to 7pm.

For further information on how to enter or become a Purchase Award Patron, please visit the Redlands Art Association at 215 E. State St., downtown Redlands, visit www.redlands-art.org or call 909-792-8435.

February Workshop: Pick Your Palette, Dye a Silk Scarf with Candy Glendening

Redlands textile artist Candy Glendening has sold hundreds of hand dyed silk scarves over the past eight years and is holding a workshop in her backyard dyeing studio so that you can learn how she does it and dye your very own! You will choose your favorite of her many different scarf palettes and she will walk you through mixing the colors, choosing the pattern you'd like to dye, and then dyeing the scarf. You could also describe what kind of color palette you'd like on a scarf, and I'll work with you to make it happen.

Either way, you'll leave with a gorgeous one-of-a-kind silk scarf, as well as an understanding of how to use fiber reactive dyes on silk. Make sure to wear work clothes, as dye splashes can stain. (If there's time, you could dye a second scarf if you'd like)

Candy Glendening is addicted to color! She dyes fabric so she can have just the hue & texture she wants, and then uses it to make art quilts and "everyday art." By day, she teaches Biology at the University of Redlands in Southern California; by night/weekend/online she also teaches quilting and dyeing. She has written 29 articles for various F & W Media/Interweave quilting magazines, appeared in 8 episodes of "Quilting Arts TV" and has two Quilting Arts Workshop videos: "Dyeing to Stitch: A Comprehensive Guide to Creating Colorful Fabric Art" and "Free Motion Machine Sketching: Drawing with Thread from Birds to Botanicals." ## Featured Artist: Rick Strobaugh

February 11 – March 4, 2017

Opening Reception ♦ 2–4pm ♦ Sunday, February 26

My first real training in photography was photographing crime scenes, traffic accidents, injuries, dead bodies and autopsies as a Police Officer and later as a Detective in charge of our Crime Scene Investigation Unit. I eventually used that training to shoot more pleasing subjects in the way of landscapes, wildlife and close-up photography. Now that I am retired I travel a lot through the western US exploring new areas and shooting photographs. I find many of my shooting locations while running marathons, backpacking, hiking or just driving up dirt roads into the mountains.

Students at Mariposa Elementary School work on concept and ideas for the Mariposa Garden Sculpture thanks to a MACEEF grant.

MACEEF: Mariposa Students Creating Garden Sculpture

"Art is not just for artists. Success in art gives a child greater self-esteem. Then he can learn better."

– Margaret Clark

Small hands and big imaginations are fully engaged at Mariposa Elementary School thanks to a MACEEF grant by the Redlands Art Association. Students are collectively creating a ceramic Mariposa Garden Sculpture to be completed this May and enjoyed by the community for years to come.

Local artist, Lisa Tucker, was hired by Mariposa to implement the school's only formal art initiative. "Principal, Scott Bohlender, and PTA president, Jennifer Walker, and I all liked the idea of a totem-like garden sculpture," says Tucker. "We wanted a community project so that each person contributes something small to make something grand together. And kids can return with their kids and grandkids one day because ceramics, like relationships, last forever."

To make more school projects like this possible, contributions may be made to the MACEEF Fund at www.redlands-art.org/donate

March Workshop: Upcoming Indigo Shibori Scarf Dyeing

Indigo is an ancient form of dyeing that is so much fun! There's an almost magical process where white cloth is immersed into a vat of yellow liquid – when removed, it quickly turns from yellow, to green, to blue. Of course, it's not magic, just a bit of chemistry! In this class, we'll explore different ways to add pattern to cloth using different "physical resist" techniques. After folding, clamping and tying some white fabric, you'll immerse it in an indigo vat and see how those manipulations create fun patterns like these:

You'll leave with 1 or 2 (for another fee) scarf in your choice of silk or cotton/silk blend patterned by your own hands, and instructions on how easy it is to make your own indigo vat with pre-reduced indigo.

When: Saturday, March 18 from 9 - 1 (bring lunch), with a rain date of Sunday, March 19.

Where: 1309 W Olive Ave. Redlands, CA 1.5 miles from RAA, grey house with white trim on the corner of Olive and Lakeside

Fee: $65/$50 for RAA member + $12 materials fee/ student due Instructor Register in the Gallery
